Arrows user:

Offering for personal OCs

Arrow constantly attempts to trade its characters for other people's OCs.
It asks for permission at first, but even if the owner declines it just keeps offering more and more OCs, often while saying things like "I want this OC so bad, I've already created lore for them" and "sorry, I just get so upset when I can't get it." This behavior makes the owner feel guilty, and they often give into the pressure and trade their OC away.

There were multiple instances of owners coming back to express regret about giving their OCs away, and Arrow's responses have always been along the lines of "it's not my problem" and "it was your decision, not mine."

Despite seeing how its guilt-tripping caused many cases of people doing something they later regret, it does not see its behavior as harmful and continues to do so.

Other cases caused by arrow's guilt-tripping which were followed by regret include, but are not limited to:

- Continuously asking its friend to co-own an ex-fursona of theirs that holds great personal value to them. Then after the friend told them it can't co-own the OC anymore it said something like "if you didn't want me to co-own them you could've just say that"
- Making people trade away 10+ OCs for a single character of its (especially if that character was designed by kittydog/a famous person) by making the person add more and more of their OCs to the trade because "its character is worth more than that". A good example is the one time a person ended up trading 2 kittydog designs plus more OCs for one Arrow's kittydog design. They of course later regretted that.

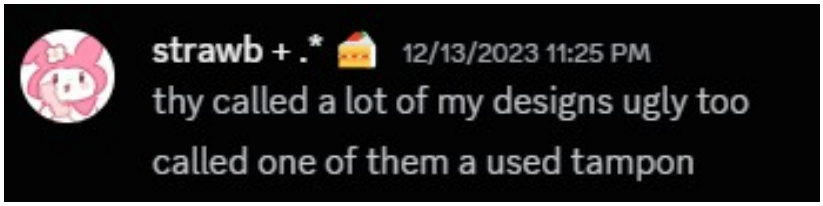
Insulting others' designs + hypocrisy

When Strawbie showed it their old designs Arrow said some pretty nasty things like a "ugly fucker" and "used t@mpon" which made Strawbie extremely uncomfortable.



It also does point out whenever someone's OC resembles something or is a copy of a character (the latter wouldn't be a problem if it did not copy designs itself (examples shown later))

Sexual behavior towards Diamond's vent OC

It had a sexual conversation with Diamond about her vent OC ”L@st Fuck” which Diamond either showed to Arrow or it found it on it's own. Diamond is 19 and Arrow is younger (around 13-15).
Arrow has then recorded audio of it saying sexual stuff as the L@st Fuck oc. Arrow admitted to making the audio. [(link to the video here)]

BRUV SHE HAD ME FEELING STUFF I DONT USUALLY FEEL AND I JUST KIND OF SAT THERE LIKE THIS

Images above show that Arrow is the one talking in a sexual manner.
Diamond should be in the wrong here for even allowing that, but it’s also weird enough for Arrow to be doing that in the first place. (not victim blaming though, but there were no shown signs of grooming in this conversation from Diamond’s side).
Diamond did in fact show that she didn’t know how to feel about it

Strawbie and Diamond have confronted Arrow about it, it did apologize to them but it still makes them uncomfortable.

Design copying/heavy inspiration

Probably one of the most notable things is that Arrow would steal/copy designs or make heavily inspired characters (especially kittydog's designs) in ways such as: recoloring, blatant theme or feature stealing, 'color stealing', etc. It's known to have done this before.

It would do this to Zola's OCs (most commonly Crystal, aer alters, truesona, Crystal's other forms, etc.), but also to Strawbie's OCs, that triggers Zola and others.
Recently it started owning a character heavily similar to Sashley's sona

Example of Arrow copying Strawbie's truesona Oreo (TH link)

The image on the top right is a recolor in attempt to compare how similar it looks

with it’s concept

More examples (please note Kipstal is a fusion of Crystal and another character but even then it is 90% Crystal, the left image is a edit to show how little the difference from Crystal is by just making the primary fur white)
Bottom images show copies and color similarities/identicalness of PB and Nydamic

Images below show copies and color similarities/identicalness of Zozy (Zola’s truesona) as well as Crystal and Hermo Hyperpop here is quite literally a fusion between the two, yet it is used as a completely unrelated separate character)

Heavy similarity to Sashley's mascot

Arrow owns a sona/mascot that is very similar to Ashely, even has the name "Ash" in it's initial design, but does not seem to be designed by Arrow itself. It'd state that comparing it to Ashely hurts its heart

It redesigned the character and renamed it to Looni, but even then it appears similar

Scamming (the Megawatt situation)

One time Arrow has created a recolor (Megawatt) of a pawbii custom (Custard) made by Zola as a gift for Strawbie, it’d claim that it was made by Zola although it isn’t, but its resemblance/colors are heavily similar to Babiwo. Megawatt was sold to Oz (for supposedly 20 fullbodies and some designs iirc) being told that it is a kittydog design
Arrow would be aggressive and mean to others if they even tried helping or confronting them like Simon

Conclusion

We have given Arrow many chances before, and despite that it keeps on acting like this despite claiming to be a different/better person nowadays, we recommend to avoid trading or associating with it

If you have experience with arrow let us know simon wrote this message!
